9. Appointment Policy

Patients can book appointments through the hospital reception or the hospital appointment system.

Patients should provide their name, contact number, preferred department, preferred doctor, and preferred appointment date.

Appointments should preferably be booked at least one day in advance.

Patients should arrive at least 15 minutes before their scheduled consultation time.

A patient who arrives more than 20 minutes late may need to reschedule the appointment depending on doctor availability.

10. Appointment Cancellation Policy

Patients can cancel or reschedule an appointment up to 4 hours before the scheduled consultation time.

Appointments cancelled less than 4 hours before the scheduled time may be subject to the hospital's cancellation policy.

Patients should contact the appointment desk for cancellation or rescheduling requests.

11. Emergency Services

The Emergency Department operates 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Emergency services are available without a prior appointment.

Patients experiencing a medical emergency should immediately contact the emergency department or local emergency services.

The AI hospital assistant should not diagnose medical conditions or provide emergency medical treatment instructions. For emergencies, the assistant should direct the user to appropriate emergency services.

12. Insurance and Billing

The hospital accepts selected health insurance plans.

Insurance eligibility depends on the patient's insurance provider and policy.

Patients should carry their insurance card and valid identification during hospital visits.

Insurance approval may be required before certain procedures or admissions.

Patients should contact the billing department for insurance-specific questions.

Patients should carry a valid prescription when purchasing prescription medicines.

The hospital AI assistant should not prescribe medicines or recommend changes to prescribed medication.

15. Diagnostic Services

The hospital provides ECG, X-ray, Ultrasound, Blood tests, and Basic laboratory investigations.

Diagnostic service availability may vary depending on the department and operating schedule.

Patients should contact the diagnostic department for appointment and preparation requirements.

16. AI Hospital Assistant Rules

The hospital AI assistant is designed to provide information about hospital services, departments, doctors, appointments, policies, and other information contained in the hospital's approved knowledge base.

The assistant should use the hospital knowledge base when answering hospital-specific questions.

If the required information is not available in the knowledge base, the assistant should clearly state that the information is unavailable instead of inventing an answer.

The assistant must not fabricate doctor schedules, hospital policies, patient records, appointments, insurance approvals, diagnoses, prescriptions, or medical treatment recommendations.

For appointment-related requests, the assistant should use the appropriate appointment tool when available.

For patient-specific information, the assistant should use the authorized patient database tool and should not expose information belonging to another patient.
